

"The South Shore's finest jam band, since 1999". Floydian Slip plays an eclectic mix of rock and reggae, at once danceable and cerebral, highlighting serious improvisational skills. With an active repertoire of nearly 200 songs, both original material and covers, Floydian Slip draws from a wide variety of influences and consistently keeps an audience engaged. Having just completed their third studio project, the band consists of singer/songwriter/guitarist Olaf Kirsten, singer/songwriter/guitarist Andy Noyes, singer/songwriter/bassist Scott McCafferty, and drummer/percussionist Jeff Kriner. The onstage chemistry between these four musicians yields a rich and unique sound much greater than the sum of its parts as they think and play as one, always with the purpose of serving the music.

For more information, please visit the band's website at www.floydianslip.org, and visit the Floydian Slip Facebook page. For booking information, contact Scott McCafferty at 715-209-2474, or via email at 21kwonsoo@gmail.com.

